Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia have suffered much from the want of a skillful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases I have taken pains to inform myself of the competence of Mr J F Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath After some months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments and ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to those important articles

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS ASTHMA, BRONCHITES, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS

THE Proprietor has succeeded (from directions of Professor Stone) in combining the Oil and Lime so perfectly that the taste of the Oil, which is so nauseous to persons generally, is entirely overcome and it can be taken by the most delicate females with pleasure And as regards the benefit of this article over the clear oil, the following case by Prof Stone is sufficient to convince the most skeptical The young lady was twenty four years of age

"Her disease was one of unmixed phthisic which had been expected to terminate in the course of a few months fatally The upper part of both her lungs were filled with tubercles, and in some places were beginning to soften The case was evident ly a bad one The treatment of Cod Liver Oil was at first used, but without marked improvement The Phosphate of Lime was then administered with the oil, and the result, as in the case of many others was soon apparent The patient was rapidly getting well"

CAUTION —On account of the great reputation of this Compound for all Lung complaints, the subscriber would caution the afflicted against using any except that manufactured by him, as he has the only recipe in the United States for combining the pure Oil with lime in a proper manner Therefore as you value your health purchase none except that manufactured by

Bank Note Protection.

A new plan to prevent Fraud by the Alteration of Bank Notes from low to higher denominations.

The Notes are divided into two classes.

CLASS FIRST embraces the denominations of one two, three four and five dollars These are distinguished by strips at the right ends of the notes, composed of geometric lathe work and running towards the centre the number of strips corresponding with the amounts of the notes Thus a one strip for one dollar two strips for two dollars, and so on; and up in the centre of these strips a large figure readily seen, designates the denomination of each note In this class of notes, there are no borders on the left ends—which are occupied by vignettes and other work The President's name will be placed under and near the right end strip work on all notes of this class, and that of the Register or some other name above it thus protecting the strip work from alteration—no place being left for adding another strip either above or below the signatures

CLASS SECOND embraces the denominations of ten twenty fifty, one hundred and five hundred dollars On these the whole arrangement is reversed The strips of lathe work, (different from those used upon the other class of notes) commence at the left ends and run towards the centre the vignettes and other work being upon the right On this class the Cashier's name is placed under the strip work and that of the Register directly over it their names being separated by one strip on a ten dollar note, by two on a twenty three on a fifty four on a hundred and by five strips upon a five hundred dollar note presenting a perfect contrast between the two classes of notes

Any person acquainted with the plan, could not be deceived by any alteration of any one of these notes in either class, from one denomination to another The plan is a simple one and is comprehended almost at a glance, from an examination of the notes, for although so many lines are required to describe it in words the pictorial description is very short and easily understood and remembered The inventor JAMES ATWATER, Esq, of New Haven Conn has secured his invention by caveat, entered at the Patent Office at Washington and has made an arrangement with DANFORTH WRIGHT & CO, exclusively, for its use upon Bank Notes

Besides the protection against the alteration of the denominations of Bank Notes afforded to banks and the public by this plan a very great security against counterfeiting is also afforded by the free use of the geometric lathe work of which the borders are composed and which cannot be successfully imitated either with any other machine or with the graver

☞ Fruit growers should be on the look-out among their fruit trees for the appearance of Catterpillars, as they may have overlooked the insect rings upon the twigs during the winter and spring. There are two easy ways of destroying them—one is by placing a small charge of powder in a gun and firing into the nest and the destruction of the catterpillars is complete. Another way is to swab them with burning fluid and then setting the fluid on fire. Either of these ways is effectual. In our own garden we examine the trees very carefully to find the little rings containing the eggs and by picking them off we avoided the appearance of the catterpillars. In some way let these pests be destroyed.

☞ Mr. J. F. Somers of Columbus Ohio formerly of this city and one of the active men of some fifteen years since, is now on a visit to Bangor and in order to answer the numerous inquiries of his friends relative to the mineral resources, the public improvements and the rail-road system of the West and South-West, with which he has been familiar for several years, he will deliver a free lecture on Monday evening next at Mechanics Hall in which he will give an account of these matters. The public are invited at attend.

Religious Summary.

The Rev. Thomas F Davis, Rector of Grace Church, Camden, has been elected Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina, by the Convention held on the 7th inst. in Charleston

The Romist papers state that 185 English and American clergymen have joined the Romish Church since the year 1812. A correspondent of a Baltimore paper suggests that they would furnish better material for future history, if they should state, that in Ireland a Protestant Bishop received into the church 2,412 converted Romanists—and that 30,000 have confessed to the Protestant—and a delegate from an Irish ministry, said, that the Romanists have lost in this country within sixteen or eighteen years, over 2,000,000 of their people. A friend from St. Louis, who is conversant with Romish tactics, informed me that the Romanists are fast gaining ground in the valley of the Mississippi.

The Catholic Mirror says, among the female converts to Romanism, are Mrs. Ripley, well known for her beautiful translation of the "Glories of Mercy." Mrs Metcalf, lady of Judge Metcalf, of Boston; Miss Macomb, daughter of Gen. Macomb, Miss Scott, daughter of Gen. Scott, and Miss Dana, daughter of Richard H. Dana, the poet

Alympine, the son of the Bey of Tartary, delivered a pleasing lecture to a crowded audience in the Baptist chapel, Barnesley, recently, on the manners, customs, and religion, of Russia, and Russian Tartary. He described his own conversion to Christianity, and how for breaking in pieces his idols, he was banished to Liberia, and his escape from that country to England. His object was to raise a certain sum of money to take him home, where he would read his bible to his poor, deluded brethren, and labor for their conversion

The Christian Times states, that Mr. Shepherd, a diligent scholar, has succeeded in proving that the Epistles of Cyprian are undoubted forgeries. This will be a heavy blow to the Tractarians, as upon them much of the Oxford doctrines are founded

Elijah S. Fish of the class of '52, in Amherst College, was lately ordained to the work of the gospel ministry in New Salem, Mass., by the Baptist Association

Dr Lyman Beecher said in a late sermon, that a minister's ideas should stick out like rabbit's ears, so that people could get hold of them, and get something for the pains

The Scotch missions to the Jews are meeting with encouraging success. During the last winter, the mission at Constantinople obtained a greatly enlarged access to the young. In Austria and Prussia, and in Holland, the Missions to the Jews find favor.

The income of the Wesleyan Missionary Society (England) for the year 1852, was $526,851 87, being an increase upon the regular increase of last year of $13,199 93.

The London Missionary Society has gathered a rich and splendid harvest in the Islands of the Pacific. During Mr Buzacourt's absence five years from Rarotanga, 115 have been received into the church. The Sabbath after his arrival, 30 were admitted. Since that time 65 have made a public profession of their faith, and 15 there stand propounded, all of them fruits of the revival of 1851. IOTA

JAMAICA

The steamer El Paraguay, from Charleston, arrived at Kingston 24th April with with two slaves on board who had been secreted by the steward. Great excitement was afterwards raised by a report that another slave had been found on board by the captain and put in irons, a mob of negroes was collected who became so threatening that the magistrates were forced to search the ship in order to pacify them. In the meantime, however parties of negroes had gone off in boats and commenced stoning the steamer, whilst another party proceeded to Port Royal and tried to induce the Commodore to stop the steamer at that place and subject her to another search.

This was refused quiet was finally restored, and the El Paraguay proceeded leaving her steward a colored man, who induced by the rioters to remain at Kingston.

Political and commercial affairs were in a very unsettled state in Jamaica in consequence of a difficulty in Legislature which resulted in throwing, out the imports duty bill and the subsequent prorogation of the Legislature until the 17th of May. All articles are admitted without any duty being legally collectable in consequence of which speculators were busy, and orders for large cargoes had been forwarded to the United States.

☞ The Christian Inquirer has this fine remark:—"The giddy belle, and the overworked seamstress are extreme forms of the same mental impoverishment." The Inquirer further observes:—"To our view, one of the worst things in American society is the studied indifference of female education, to everything truly useful and exalting. Ostentation in high life is a fair match, in point of degradation, with grinding want in low life."

☞ A thief, named Van Liew who was arrested in 1848 for plundering the state-rooms of a Hudson river boat, but made his escape before trial was nabbed in New York a day or two since after a five years absence in California. Justice in this case is slow but sure.

THE LOSS OF THE SHIP WILLIAM & MARY.

We find some further particulars in regard to the loss of the ship William & Mary, of Bath, Me., off the Great Isaacs, which are of interest. About eighty of the passengers were Germans, who were going out in company, with the intention of settling on a large tract of land which had been bought in Illinois. The remainder were composed of Irish, English and Scotch—the Irish forming the largest proportion. As all the papers belonging to the ship were lost, a list of the lost, (numbering, accordingly to all accounts, about one hundred and seventy persons,) can never be obtained. Of the rescued passengers, not more than two or three were women.

One of the crew makes a statement, in the New York Herald portions of which we copy.

"The two life boats were launched first, and four men got into the starboard boat, taking with them two cans of water, a compass, and some bread. They remained in the boat all night, and with the greatest difficulty kept her from being stove. The larboard boat was safely launched, and but about half an hour after was stove under the quarter. This was caused by the decks being so crowded aft that the boat could not be dropped astern. The boat at the cranes was so filled by the passengers that they bent the cranes down to the water. This boat was stove also. The long-boat was still remaining on the after house, unfit to be launched without caulking. Part of the crew were ordered, however, to get that ready, and the remainder to lay forward and get ready to cut away the mast. The ship was now rolling very heavily, the sea breaking over her every few minutes during the squalls. Some of the head-stays were cut, and everything got ready to let the foremast go overboard but the Captain gave orders not to cut it, as the sails kept the ship from rolling. We were then ordered to lay aft, and do what we could to get the long-boat ready to launch, after which we commenced caulking, tearing up our quilts for the cotton to caulk with. We had been here but a few minutes when she went off the rock all expected she would sink immediately. Her anchors were let go as soon as possible, and after drifting a few rods she struck again so heavily that it prostrated many on the deck, and it was evident to all that the ship could possibly stand but a few more such shocks. The scene was now dreadful beyond description.

Men who before this had acted their part nobly, now ceased to make any effort to save themselves or others. Some went to a cask of liquor that was between decks and there forgot their dangers and troubles. The mate and myself went below about twelve, to ascertain, if we could, the amount of water in the ship. It was then but little above the keelson, much less than was expected. We informed them on deck immediately, which seemed to encourage the hope that the ship might be kept afloat until some assistance could be procured. They labored more earnestly at the pumps, and all who were willing to work were kept caulking the long-boat. It was almost impossible, in fact, to get them to work, as they despaired of saving themselves. The mate and myself again went to the hold to find out whether the water was gaining, and found that there were seven or eight feet of water. We still endeavored to encourage the passengers to work at the pumps hoping that she might be kept afloat till daylight. At day-light we looked after the boats, and found that the quarter boat was stove. The mate, not being aware of its condition, got into it and attempted to bail it but making no progress, he was finally compelled to give it up. He then got into the life-boat, not daring to return on board the sinking ship, which was at this time rapidly going down. I got into one of the boats that was stove, and hauled myself along by a rope running from the ship to the life-boat, into which I got.

I was followed by John Best, who jumped overboard and swam to the boat, which was now about as full as it would hold. The spray was breaking over it. The captain was the last who got into the life-boat, and even then he had to be urged very strongly before he would consent to leave the vessel. When the passengers saw him leave the ship they knew there was no longer any hope, and became perfectly frantic with despair, screaming and calling wildly for that assistance which it was impossible to render them. As soon as the captain left, six of the crew, who still remained in the ship, got ready the long boat, into which several of the passengers jumped indiscriminately. I never saw anything in my life so fearful. Women and men jumped overboard from the after part of the vessel, near where the boat lay and many were drowned. One of the crew who was in the long boat was compelled with a hatchet to keep off the passengers who were crowding into the boat, and who, if allowed to enter it, would undoubtedly have sunk it. We cut our boat loose from the vessel, rigged a sort of sail, and ran before the wind. The long boat followed immediately, and we kept company for a short distance, when we separated, but still kept in sight. We saw the long boat picked up between two and three hours after she left the vessel. About two hours later we were picked up by the Reuben Carver, Captain Cobb."

We publish a full and complete list of the officers and crew of the lost vessel, for the information of their friends in this section.

THE END OF LIFE.—The end of our being is to educate bring out and perfect the divine principle of our nature. We were made and are upheld in life for this as our great end that we may be true to the principle of duty within us, & that we may put down all desire & appetite beneath the inward law, and that we may enthrone God, the infinitely perfect Father, in our souls, that we may count all things as dross in comparison with sanctity of heart and life; that we may hunger and thirst for righteousness more than daily food; that we may resolutely and honestly seek for and communicate truth; that disinterested love and impartial justice may triumph over every motion of selfishness, and every tendency to wrong doing; in a word, that our whole lives, labors and conversations may express and strengthen reverence for ourselves, for our fellow creatures, and above all for God. Such is the good for which we are made.

"Pa," said a little seven-years old fellow, "I guess our man Ralph is a good christian." "How so my boy," queried the parent. "Why, pa, I read in the Bible that the wicked shall not live out half their days—and Ralph says he has lived out over since he was a little boy.

Holloway's Pills.—A most extraordinary cure of Dropsy effected by their use.—Mr George Rowley of Tobago, had suffered from this disease for upwards of five years, during which period he underwent the operation of tapping five times. His malady was most skillfully treated by several practitioners, notwithstanding which he got gradually worse, his health and strength falling so fast as to render any hope of recovery almost vain; as a last resource he tried Holloway's Pills, and by persevering in their use according to the directions affixed to each box he was completely cured in a few months, and is now restored to a good state of health.

H. G. Farrell's Genuine Arabian Liniment

is a most extraordinary medicine, the truth of which is placed beyond doubt by the vast sales of the article, and the many cures being daily performed by it, which previously had resisted all other medicines and the skill of the best physicians in the world. It is composed of balsams, extracts and gums peculiar to Arabia—possessing, in a concentrated form, all their stimulating, anodyne, penetrating, unctuous, and revulsive properties, and the same which, ages ago, were used by the "Sons of the Desert," with such miraculous success, in curing the diseases of both man and beast.

Read the following remarkable cure, which should of itself place H. G. FARRELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT far beyond any similar remedy

Mr H G Farrell—Dear Sir: Actuated by a sense of gratefulness, I submit the following as an instance of the utility of your great medicine. My child three years old, was suddenly attacked with a terrible disease, which in less than six hours prostrated it to total helplessness. The limbs became so rigid that not a joint could be bent, the flesh turned black and cold, and entirely deprived of feeling, the eyes fixed, partially closed and altogether blind following this was deafness to all sounds. The spine became contracted and so curved that when lying on its back the head and heels only touched. Indeed, the child presented every appearance of being dead. Immediately on the attack the family physician was called in, and for three weeks he labored to restore it to feeling, but all in vain, although it was blistered a dozen times, and various rubefacient Liniments applied. A consultation of physicians was then held, but to no purpose: the case was then brought before the Medical Society, but nothing could be suggested which had not already been done and the doctor then told me he could do nothing more. We then commenced applying your Liniment freely over the entire length of the spine, and you may imagine a parent's joy, when, after a few applications, returning animation was apparent, and it rapidly recovered with the exception of sight, which did not become perfect for near a month. The child is now healthy and robust, as can be. Five other cases of the same kind occurred previously in my neighborhood, all of which died, when there is no doubt if your Liniment had been used they would have recovered.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS

The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, called W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because his having the name of Farrell many will buy it in good faith, without the knowledge that a counterfeit exists, and they will perhaps only discover their error when the spurious mixture has wrought its evil effects.

The genuine article is manufactured only by H. G. Farrell, sole inventor and proprietor, and wholesale druggist, No. 17 Main Street, Peoria, Illinois to whom all applications for Agencies must be addressed. Be sure you get it with the letters H. G. before Farrell's, thus—H. G. FARRELL'S—and his signature on the wrappers, all others are counterfeits.

Sold by INGRAHAM & FULLER, wholesale and retail, Bangor. Also by R. F. Kimball, Oldtown; French & Hamilton, Dexter; Geo. Parcher, Ellsworth; P. O. Flaherty, Houlton; And by regularly authorized agents throughout the United States.

Boom Notice

THE OWNERS of logs in the Penobscot Boom are hereby notified that the Corporation will commence rafting at their upper Gap, near the foot of White Squaw Island on Monday next, and the said owners are requested to take their logs promptly from the Boom. The Corporation will perform their duty in the matter of rafting, and hope for a corresponding action on the part of log owners, both in the driving and the receiving of their logs. The marks of logs must be entered seasonably so that there may be no error in the rafting and delivery of the same.

The Corporation have reason to believe that sundry persons are, or have been, picking up and rafting logs within their chartered limits, and marking and altering the marks on the same—thereby committing a fraud on the owners of said logs. A reward of one hundred dollars is hereby offered for the detection of any such person or persons committing said acts—provided sufficient testimony to convict them is produced.

Remarkable Disappearance.

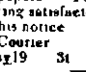

FRANK WESTCOTT, a young man 21 years of age left his fathers store No. 44 Fulton street Boston Monday after May 2d having with him but a small sum of money and no extra clothing and has not since been heard from. He was a person of good habits and could have had no reason for leaving town.

His friends are much distressed at his strange disappearance fearing that he may be laboring under a sudden insanity and would generously reward any person communicating information which may lead to his recovery.

Editors copying the above will confer a favor upon the anxious parents.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL!

FOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINANCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered In fact as a remedy for the above complaints it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested and its virtues proclaimed by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS HEAD and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY CONFUSION thoughts of Self Destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses, or evil practices It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions &c, were incurable This however is not the fact

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has, and is constantly curing these complaints relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show

Dr Woodward of the Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this cordial, thus — It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me says Dr W "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect In the meantime he purchased some of your Cordial, which has affected a cure I am sure no other medicine would I shall ever recommend whenever an opportunity occurs"

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of course out of the question and the proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidently obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended

have not in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints It has, in many violent and desperate cases effected radical cures after patients had been abandoned and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character

THE COMMON EXPRESSION

Of those who have used this Extract is—"I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas) without deriving any benefit I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief when I purchased some of your Cordial I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has I feel stronger have had no emissions since although it is not three weeks I am satisfied the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me

Another says— I had consulted several distinguished physicians Some said I could not be cured others prescribed this thing and that but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial I must say it completely cured me"

Another says—"I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering

CAUTION—Ask for Dr Morse's Cordial and take no other as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence fame and popularity, have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate Female but do good Beware of all other Cordials &c (and try only this)

Notice Persons conscious of physical inability from causes above name may confidentially consult Dr Morse personally or by letter (post paid) at his office 78 Sudbury street Boston The necessary advice and medicine for the speedy removal of such disability will be safely forwarded to the writer's address

Dr M is prepared to warrant a perfect cure in every case or take no pay

Prepared by M Morse M D New York city

It is put up in pint bottles with the words Dr Morse's Vig rating Cordial, blown on the glass Price $3 per bottle 2 bottles $5, 6 bottles $12 and $24 per dozen
